DETAILED ACTION

1. In view of the Appeal Brief filed on 19 April 2010, PROSECUTION IS HEREBY REOPENED. Allowance set forth below.

To avoid abandonment of the application, appellant must exercise one of the following two options:

(1) file a reply under 37 CFR 1.111 (if this Office action is non-final) or a reply under 37 CFR 1.113 (if this Office action is final); or,

(2) initiate a new appeal by filing a notice of appeal under 37 CFR 41.31 followed by an appeal brief under 37 CFR 41.37. The previously paid notice of appeal fee and appeal brief fee can be applied to the new appeal. If, however, the appeal fees set forth in 37 CFR 41.20 have been increased since they were previously paid, then appellant must pay the difference between the increased fees and the amount previously paid.

A Supervisory Patent Examiner (SPE) has approved of reopening prosecution by signing below:

2. Claims 8, 12, 13 and 20-34 are pending and claims 1-7, 9-11 and 14-19 are cancelled. As a result of the Remarks in the Appeal Brief filed 19 April 2010, claims 8, 12, 13 and 20-34 (renumbered as 1-18) are allowed.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

3. The rejections of claims 8, 12, 13 and 20-34 under 35 USC 112, first paragraph are withdrawn based on the arguments on pages 8-10 of the Appeal Brief. The examiner is interpreting the claim limitations in question in the manner in which the Applicant describes the Specification as providing support.

Reasons for Allowance

4. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

In the Examiner's Final Office Action dated 25 November 2009, claims 8, 12, 13 and 20-34 were rejected under 35 USC 103 based primarily on US PGPub 2002/0147857 to Sanchez, II et al, US PGPub 2008/0086402 to Patel et al and US PGPub 2003/0120502 to Robb et al.

The claimed invention is directed towards a directory that has defined static attributes and dynamic attributes. When a query is executed against the directory, the values for static attributes are retrieved from the directory, but if the attribute is dynamic, then the directory has a defined module for that attribute that retrieves the value in real-time from a real-time source. The static and dynamic values are then returned together to the requestor without storing the values for the dynamic attribute in the LDAP.

The prior art of record, Sanchez, Patel and Robb, do not show, teach or suggest the features of outside storage of real-time directory attribute and converting real-time attribute to static with restriction on access compatibility of the real-time and converted static attribute, found in the following limitations a real-time attribute associated with but external to a directory structure; converting said obtained attribute value from a real-time attribute to a static attribute, wherein said real-time attribute is incompatible with said directory access protocol, and wherein said static attribute is compatible with said directory access protocol; and wherein storing and updating of said converted real-time attribute value in said directory structure is eliminated or avoided in combination with the other claimed features.

Referring to Applicant's arguments filed on pages 10-14 of the Remarks in regards to the independent claims, the Applicant argues that the prior art of record fails to disclose the concept of retrieving the dynamic attributes in real-time utilizing the directory without storing the retrieved values in the directory.

Applicant's arguments, filed 19 April 2010, with respect to the prior art rejections of the claims have been fully considered and are persuasive. The 35 USC 103 rejections of the claims have been withdrawn.

An updated search for prior art on the EAST database and on domains (NPL-ACM, Google, IEEE) has been conducted. The prior art searched and investigated in the database and domains does not fairly teach or suggest the teaching of the claimed subject matter as described above and reflected by the combined elements in independent claims 8, 20 and 23. Dependent claims 12, 13, 21, 22 and 24-34 are deemed allowable for the reasons stated above in regards to the independent claims.

5. Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
